

Lansing for Hire (April 24, 2014)

Join the conversation about employment in Michigan. Hear from organizations across the state about research exploring gaps in the economy and what resources are available to career seekers and employers to fill those gaps. Share your ideas for how Lansing can improve talent attraction and retention efforts to strengthen the workforce.

Thursday, April 24, 2014

4:00PM–5:00PM

MSU Center for Community and Economic Development

1615 E. Michigan Avenue

Lansing, MI 48912

Presenters

- Lou Glazer, Michigan Future, Inc.
Learn about the current conditions of Michigan's economic climate and how developing a stronger knowledge-based economy can lead to statewide prosperity.
- Colby Spencer-Cesaro, Workforce Intelligence Network
Hear about research tactics that are helping to create a more cohesive workforce development system by identifying skills and talent needed in Michigan's economy.
- Amanda Dumond, Prima Civitas
Find out what tools are available to keep talent in Michigan and how these tools better connect career seekers, at any age, with employers.